(4) If any qualified medical practitioner attends on a person who is or has been employed in mine and who is or is believed by the medical practitioner to be suffering from any disease notified under sub-section (1), the medical practitioner shall without delay send a report in writing to the Chief Inspector stating-

- (a) the name and address of the patient;
- (b) the disease from which the patient is or is believed to be suffering; and
- (c) the name and address of the mine in which the patient is or was last employed.

(5) Where the report under sub-section (4) is confirmed to the satisfaction of the Chief Inspector by the certificate of a certifying doctor that the person is suffering from a disease notified under sub-section (1), the Chief Inspector shall pay to the medical practitioner such fee as may be prescribed, and the fee so paid shall be recoverable as an arrear of land revenue from the owner, agent or manager of the mine in which the person contracted the disease.

(6) The Chief Inspector or an Inspector, if so advised by the certifying doctor, may direct the owner, agent or manager of the mine to shift for any specified period a person who has contracted an occupational disease to such working place where there is less or no danger of aggravation of the disease.]

21. Power of Government to appoint court of inquiry in cases of accidents.

— (1) When any accidental explosion, ignition, outbreak of fire or irruption of water or other accident has occurred in or about any mine, the ⁹³[appropriate Government], if it is of opinion that a formal inquiry into the causes of, and circumstances attending, the accident ought to be held, may appoint a competent person to hold such inquiry, and may also appoint any person or persons possessing legal or special knowledge to act as assessor or assessors in holding the inquiry.

25. Exemption from provisions regarding employment.— ¹¹⁶[(1)] In case of an emergency involving serious risk to the safety of the mine or of persons employed therein, the manager may, subject to the provisions of section 19, permit persons to be employed in contravention of ¹¹⁷[section 22A, section 22B, section 22C, section 23, or sub-section (4) of section 23-B] on such work as may be necessary to protect the safety of the mine or of the persons employed therein:

Provided that, where such occasion arises, a record of the fact shall immediately be made by the manager and shall be placed before the Chief Inspector or the Inspector at his next inspection of the mine.

¹¹⁸[(2) When as a result of grant of an exemption to any mine from the provisions of section 22-A, any person employed therein is deprived of any of the weekly days of rest, he shall be allowed within two months from the date on which the weekly day of rest was due, compensatory days of rest equal in number to the days of rest of which he has been deprived.

(3) In case of prescribed processes which are required by their nature to be carried on continuously by a succession of shifts, the limit of hours of work provided in section 22-B or section 22-C may, with the prior approval of the Chief Inspector, be raised to not more than fifty-six hours in any week or ten hours in any day.

(4) In exceptional cases of pressure of work, the Chief Inspector may grant temporary exemption to a mine from the provisions of section 22-A, section 22-B or section 22-C for a period not exceeding ninety days in any calendar year, within the maximum limits of—

- (a) ten hours of work on any one day, and

- (b) twelve hours of spread over, inclusive of intervals for rest or meal, in any one day.

(5) Subject to the maximum limits specified in sub-section (4), the appropriate Government may, by order, grant permanent exemption, to such extent and subject to such conditions as may be specified in the order, to a class of workers engaged either on preparatory or complementary work which must necessarily be carried on outside the mines or on work which is essentially intermittent.]

¹¹⁹[25-A. Extra wages for overtime.— (1) Where in a mine a person works for more than eight hours in any day or works for more than forty-eight hours in any week, whether above ground or below ground, he shall in respect of such overtime work be entitled to wages at the rate of twice his ordinary rate of wages, the period of overtime work being calculated on a daily basis or weekly basis, whichever is more favourable to him.

Explanation.-- In this sub-section, 'ordinary rate of wages' means all remuneration capable of being expressed in terms of money which would, if the terms of contract of employment, express or implied, were fulfilled, be payable to a worker in respect of his employment or of work done in such employment, but does not include--

- (i) the value of any house-accommodation, supply of light, water, medical attendance or other amenity;
- (ii) any contribution paid by the owner to any pension fund or provident fund;
- (iii) any travelling allowance or the value of travelling concession;
- (iv) any sum paid to the person employed to defray special expenses entailed on him by the nature of his employment; or
- (v) any gratuity, bonus, overtime, allowance or share in profits of the mine.

(2) Where any person employed in a mine is paid on a piece-rate basis the appropriate Government, in consultation with the employer concerned and the representatives of the persons employed in the mine, may, for the purposes of this section, fix time rates as nearly as possible equivalent to the average rate of earnings of the persons so employed, and the rates so fixed shall be deemed to be the ordinary rates of wages of such persons.

(3) The appropriate Government may prescribe the registers that shall be maintained in a mine for the purpose of securing compliance with the provisions of this section.]

26. Children.— No child shall be employed in a mine, or be allowed to be present in any part of a mine which is below ground.

¹¹⁹ Section 25-A added, ibid, s. 18.

¹²⁰[26-A. Young persons not to be underground without certificates of fitness.
— No person who has not completed his seventeenth year shall be ¹²¹[employed in any part of a mine,] unless--

- (a) a certificate of fitness in the prescribed form and granted to him by a qualified medical practitioner is in the custody of the manager of the mine, and
- (b) he carries while at work a token giving a reference to such certificate.]

¹²²[26-B. Limitation of working hours for young persons.- No person who has not completed his seventeenth year shall be permitted to work in any part of a mine, either below ground or above ground unless the hours of work of such person for any day are so fixed as to allow an interval of rest of at least twelve consecutive hours which shall include at least such seven consecutive hours between the hours of 7 p.m. and 7 a. m. as may be prescribed:

Provided that nothing in this section shall apply to any such person while employed or permitted to work in any mine as an apprentice or for the purposes of receiving vocational training, in such circumstances and in accordance with such conditions as may be prescribed ¹²³[:]

¹²⁴[Provided further that such person shall be granted a rest period of at least thirteen consecutive hours between two working periods.]]

27. Dispute as to age.— (1) If any question arises between the Chief Inspector or the Inspector and the manager of any mine as to whether any person is a child or ¹²⁵[has not completed his seventeenth year], the question shall, in the absence of a certificate as to the age of such person granted in the prescribed manner, be referred by the Chief Inspector or the Inspector for decision to a qualified medical practitioner.

(2) Every certificate as to the age of a person which has been granted in the prescribed manner and any certificate granted by a qualified medical practitioner on a reference under sub-section (1) shall, for the purposes of this Act, be conclusive evidence as to the age of the person to whom it relates.

¹²⁶[28. Register of employees.— (1) For every mine there shall be kept in the prescribed form and place a register of all persons employed in the mine showing, in respect of each such person:—

- (a) ¹²⁷[name, date of birth and the nature] of his employment,
- (b) the periods of work fixed for him,
- (c) the intervals of rest, if any, to which he is entitled,
- (d) the days of rest to which he is entitled, and
- (e) where work is carried on by a system of relays, the relay to which he belongs.

(2) The entries in the register prescribed by sub-section (1) shall be such that workers working in accordance therewith would not be working in contravention of any of the provisions of this Chapter.

(3) No person shall be employed in a mine until the particulars required by sub-section (1) have been recorded in the register in respect of such person and no person shall be employed except during the periods of work shown in respect of him in the register.

(4) For every mine which the ¹²⁸[appropriate Government] may, by general or special order, declare this sub-section to be applicable, there shall be kept in the prescribed form and place a register which shall show at any moment the name of every person then working below ground in the mine.]

right or privilege is more favourable to him, nor shall such right or privilege be combined with, or be in addition to, the benefits under the provisions of this chapter.

28-B. Annual leave with wages.— (1) Every person who has completed one year of continuous service in a mine shall be allowed during the subsequent period of twelve months leave with wages for a number of days calculated, at the rate of—

- (a) one day for every seventeen days of work performed below ground during the previous period of twelve months;
- (b) one day for every twenty days of work performed above ground during the previous period of twelve months;

Provided that a period of leave shall be inclusive of any holiday which may occur during such period.

(2) If a person employed in a mine does not, in any such period of twelve months, take the leave to which he is entitled under sub-section (1), either in whole or in part, such leave not taken by him shall be added to the leave to be allowed to him under that sub-section in the succeeding period of twelve months:

Provided that such person shall cease to earn leave under this section when the leave due to him amounts to twenty days:

Provided further that any leave applied for by a person but refused by the owner, agent or manager of the mine for any reason shall be added to the credit of such person beyond the aforesaid limit.

(3) If a person entitled to leave under sub-section (1) is discharged before he has been allowed the leave or, if having applied for and having been refused the leave, he quits his employment before he has been allowed the leave, the owner, agent or manager shall pay him the amount payable under section 28-E in respect of the leave.

(4) For the purpose of this section, a person shall be deemed to have completed a period of continuous service in a mine notwithstanding any interruption in service during that period due to—

- (a) any holiday;
- (b) any leave with wages;
- (c) any leave, with or without wages, due to sickness or accident;
- (d) any maternity leave not exceeding twelve weeks;
- (e) any period of lay-off arising due to failure, refusal or inability of any owner on account of shortage of coal, power or raw material or the accumulation of stock or the breakdown of machinery or for any other reason, to give employment to a person whose name is borne in the master rolls of his mine; or
- (f) a strike which is not illegal or a lockout which is not legal.

28-C. Festival holidays.— Every person employed in a mine shall be allowed, with wages, such festival holidays as are declared by the appropriate Government to be public holidays.

28-D. Causal leave and sick leave.— Every person employed in a mine shall be entitled in a year to ten days' 'casual leave on full wages and sixteen days' sick leave on half average wages:

Provided that casual leave or sick leave admissible under this section shall not be accumulated and carried forward to the succeeding year.

28-E. Wages during leave or holiday periods.— For the leave or holidays allowed to a person under the provisions of this Chapter, he shall be paid—

- (a) in case of leave with full wages, at the rate equal to the daily average of his wages for the days on which he actually worked during the preceding three months; and
- (b) in case of leave with half average wages, at the rate equal to half daily average of the wages as aforesaid.

28-F. Payment in advance in certain cases.— Any person who has been allowed leave for not less than four days under section 28-B shall, before his leave begins, be paid the wages due for the period of the leave allowed.

28-G. Power of Inspector to act for workers.— Any Inspector may institute proceedings on behalf of any person who has been or is employed in a mine to recover any sum required to be, but not, paid by an owner, agent or manager in accordance with this Chapter.]

CHAPTER VIII

PENALTIES AND PROCEDURE

34. Obstruction.— (1) Whoever obstructs the Chief Inspector, an Inspector or any person authorised under section 7 in the discharge of his duties under this Act, or refuses or wilfully neglects to afford the Chief Inspector, an Inspector or such person any reasonable facility for making any entry, inspection, examination or inquiry authorised by or under this Act in relation to any mine, shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months, or with fine which may extend to ²⁰⁸[one thousand rupees], or with both.

(2) Whoever refuses to produce on the demand of the Chief Inspector or Inspector any registers or other documents kept in pursuance of this Act, or prevents or attempts to prevent or does anything which he has reason to believe to be likely to prevent, any person from appearing before or being examined by an inspecting officer acting in pursuance of his duties under this Act, shall be punishable with fine which may extend to ²⁰⁹[six] hundred rupees.

35. Falsification of records, etc.— Whoever —

- (a) counterfeits, or knowingly makes a false statement in, any certificate, or any official copy of a certificate, granted under this Act, or
- (b) knowingly uses as true any such counterfeit or false certificate, or
- (c) makes or produces or uses any false declaration, statement or evidence knowing the same to be false, for the purpose of obtaining for himself or for any other person a certificate, or the renewal of a certificate, under this Act, or any employment in a mine, or

²¹⁷[(2) Whoever in contravention of a direction made by the ²¹⁸[appropriate Government] under sub-section (2) of section 20 fails to record in the prescribed register or to give notice of any accidental occurrence shall be punishable with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees.]

39. Disobedience of orders.— Whoever contravenes any provisions of this Act or of any regulation, rule or bye-law or of any order made thereunder for the contravention of which no penalty is hereinbefore provided shall be punishable with fine which may extend to ²¹⁹[two] thousand rupees, and, in the case of a continuing contravention, with a further fine which may extend to ²²⁰[two] hundred rupees for every day on which the offender is proved to have persisted in the contravention after the date of the first conviction.

40. Contravention of law with dangerous results.— (1) Notwithstanding anything hereinbefore contained, whoever contravenes any provision of this Act or of any regulation, rule or bye-law or of any order made thereunder, shall be punishable, if such contravention results in loss of life, with imprisonment which may extend to one year, or with fine which may extend to ²²¹[four] thousand rupees, or with both; or, if such contravention results in serious bodily injury, with imprisonment which may extend to six months, or with fine which may extend to ²²²[two thousand] rupees, or with both; or, if such contravention otherwise causes injury or danger to workers or other persons in or about the mine, with imprisonment which may extend to one month, or with fine which may extend to ²²³[one thousand] rupees, or with both.

(2) Where a person having been convicted under this section is again convicted thereunder, he shall be punishable with double the punishment provided by sub-section (1).

(3) Any Court imposing, or confirming in appeal, revision or otherwise, a sentence of fine passed under this section may, when passing judgment, order the whole or any part of the fine recovered to be paid as compensation to the person injured, or, in case of his death, to his legal representative:
